Debate Teams

JACK BIARD RICHARD ABERNATHY ANNE PULLMAN SIGNA POPE

This year the carrying on of a Debate Club at North Dallas was abandoned in favor of more concentrated effort upon those who would be more likely to become members of the debate teams. Practice actually began on December 24, when both North Dallas teams met the teams from Iraan, Texas. We have had about forty practice debates in which seven pupils have taken part. The girls' team met with a serious loss in February through the death of Joan Evans. Signa Pope, who was chosen to fill the vacancy, has done excellent work in restoring the morale of the team. As usual North Dallas held a Practice Debate Tournament on the first Saturday in March. This is the Sixth Annual Tournament to be held here and was much larger than any previous one, there being nearly fifty schools that participated and more than one hundred teams. North Dallas Teams are prepared for the city meet which will be held in our own school on March 22 and 23 under the direction of Mr. Knapp.

Note: Both the boys and the girls were awarded the decisions in the city contests.

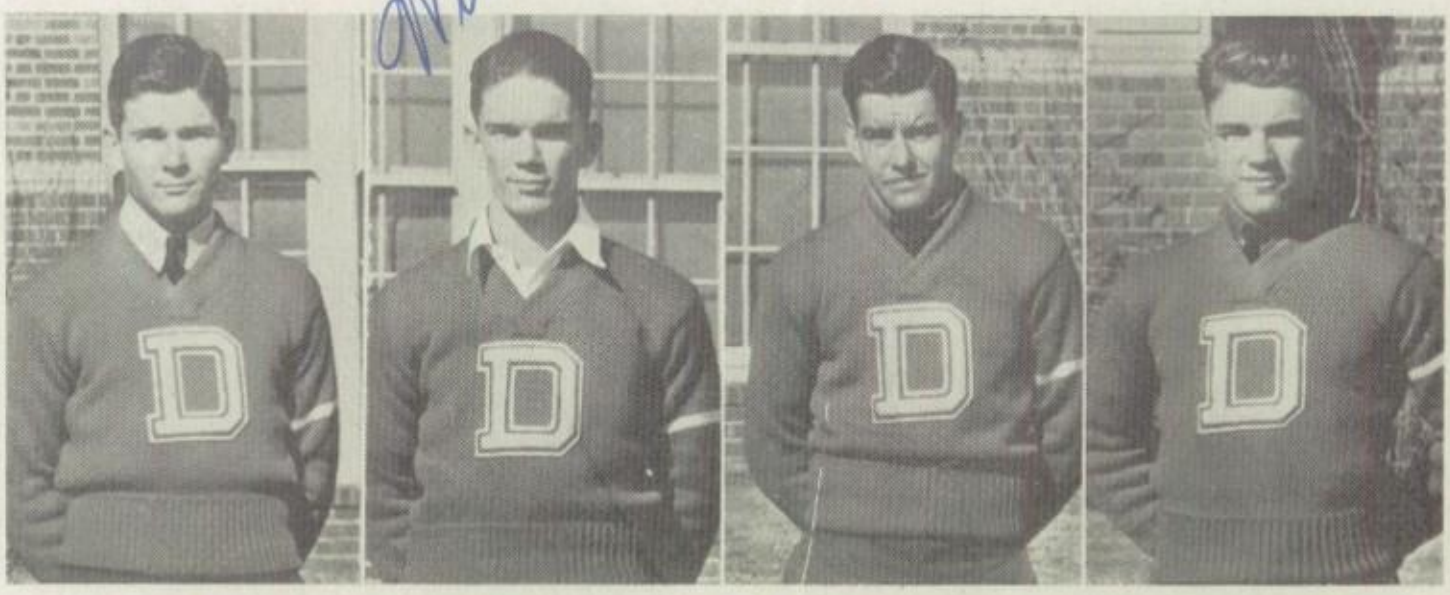
ATHLETICS



DELMAR CAROTHERS

Although injured in mid-season, Carothers was a big help to the Bulldogs. His defensive work was outstanding.

BILL MALONE

Playing at guard, Malone gave a stalwart defense and was the spearhead of the Bulldog attack.

WILBUR KEITH

Keith's work at end stood out. He was above the average in defensive and offensive ability.

NORRIS MCCRARY

Suffering a broken leg in early practice, McCrary was unable to participate in any games. He was elected captain of the 1935 team.

CLARENCE ULRICH

A triple-threat man, Ulrich was the Bulldogs offensive threat. He was injured in mid-season.

ROBERT BACCUS

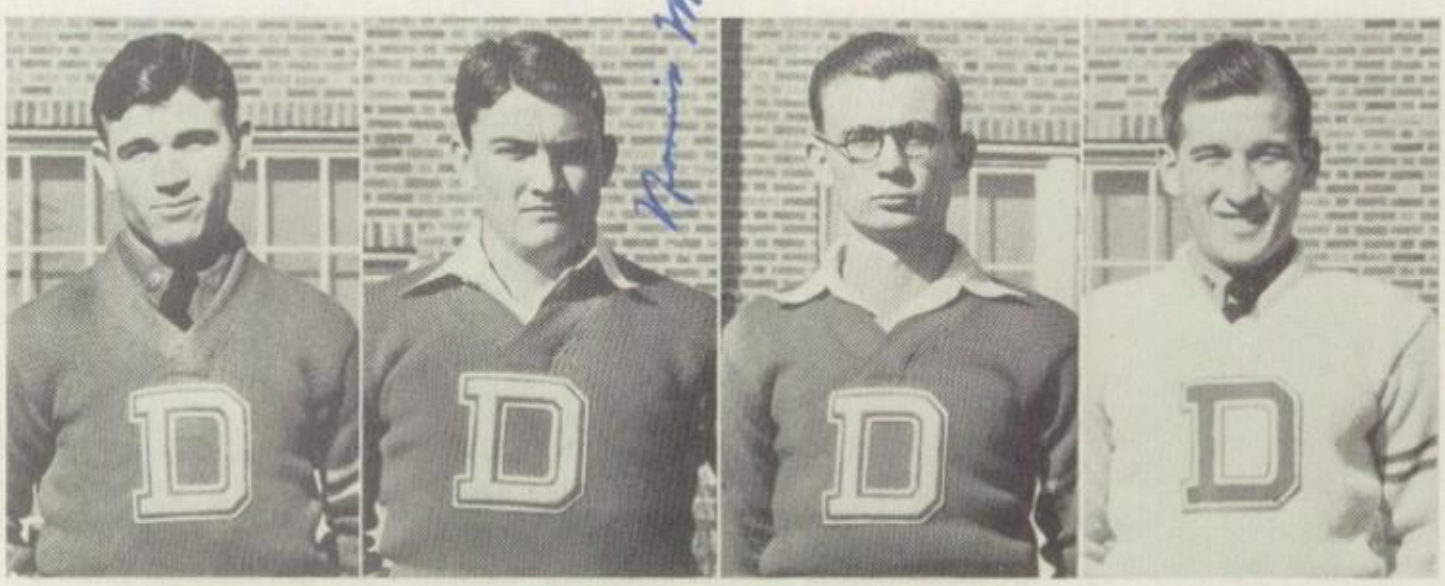
His speed and quick thinking made Baccus a valuable man at end.

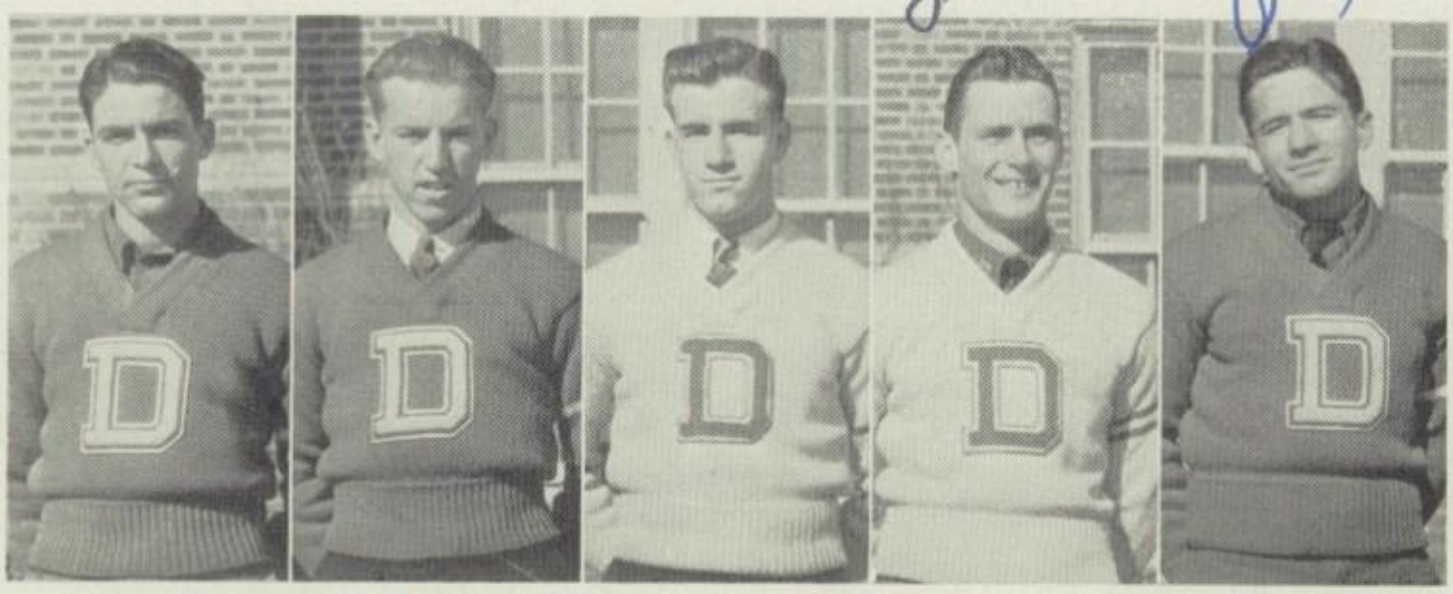
DONALD HART

Although little, size was no handicap to Hart. His blocking and running will be remembered.

KARL ZSCHACH

Out until mid-season with a broken arm, Captain Zschach made up for lost time with excellent playing for the remainder of the year.





EDWARD BIANCHI

Scrapping from start to finish, Bianchi was outstanding at guard. His play won the praise and respect of his opponents.

MURRELL TRIPP

His playing at end was smooth and consistent and will long be remembered.

HUGH CLAYTON

Above par as a passer and one of the best punters in the city, Clayton made the Bulldogs a threat always.

FELDER CULLUM

Playing at both end and tackle, Cullum turned in many fine games for the Bulldogs. He suffered a severe head injury late in the fall.

BOBBY ZSCHACH

Rivaling his big brother in football prowess, Bobby's play was marked by his smashing drives and runs.

TRUMAN FORD

Working at both end and back, Ford was invaluable to the Bulldogs because of his speed and shiftiness.

STANLEY NEELY

Playing heady ball at quarter, Neely also turned in some fine defensive work.

B. H. COLEMAN

Turning in a steady game, Coleman will be remembered for his consistent play.

GEORGE KRUTILEK

Playing excellent football, "Gabby" was far above the average player. This was his third year on the varsity.

JAMES BUCHANAN (Not in pictures)

Starting many of the games, Buchanan turned in some good football for the Bulldogs.

TRACK

Although weakened by the loss of Felder Cullum, lanky half-miler and Captain, who received a head injury during the football season, the North Dallas track team presents a formidable combination.

Leading the few experienced tracksters were Alton Broach, quarter-miler, and Karl Zschach, hurdler.

Total—North Dallas 222 Opponents 219

The North Dallas Basketball team, coached by E. M. Fulton, enjoyed a fairly successful campaign, winning five of the ten city series games and winning all but one of the practice tilts with out of town clubs. In the final standing, the Bulldogs were tied for second place, Tech winning the championship.

Outstanding for the Bulldogs was Wilbur Keith, who led the scoring in the city series race and made several all-city teams. Lettermen were Wilbur Keith, Guy Dougherty, Harold Magner, Karl Zschach, and Fred Heitmeyer.

The first team consisted of Delmar Carothers, captain, Wilbur Keith, Guy Dougherty, Karl Zschach, Harold Magner, Fred Heitmeyer, Murrell Tripp, and Walter Leavell.

The second team was composed of Edward Bianchi, Clarence Ulrich, Douglas Ivey, Morgan Nesbitt, Claud Ormsby, Frank Perretta, Norman Melvin, and Onnie Loper.

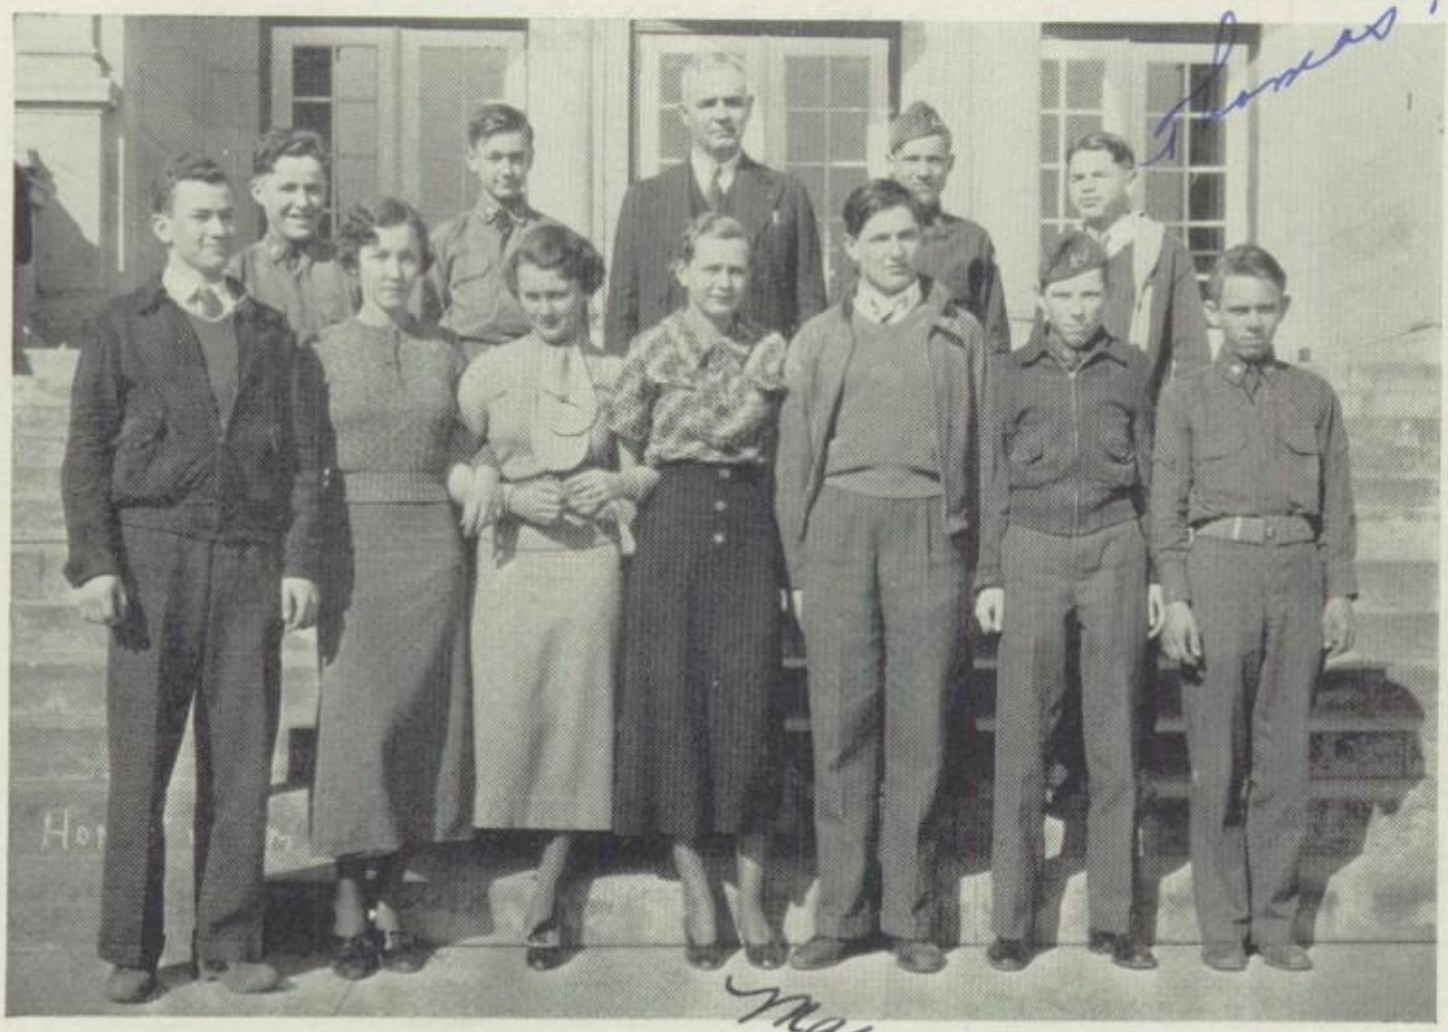
Glenn Addington was student manager of the basketball team.

BASEBALL

The hopes for a championship baseball team are very high with six lettermen back from last years squad. The lettermen are Delmar Carothers, captain, Guy Dougherty, Murrell Tripp, Wilbur Keith, Edward Bianchi, and Clarence Ulrich.

GOLF

The golf team will consist of Murrell Tripp, captain; Eddie Hilscher, Charles Dollison, and Billy Berry. Alternates are Alfred Folsom and Lindsey Goldman.



TENNIS

While severely set back by the loss of Sidney Moore and James Campbell, last year's city champions, the Bulldog tennis team is practically as strong as ever.

Mary MacQuiston and Florence Boll, State girls' doubles' champions, and Dorothy Nicholson, city singles winner, make up an excellent girl team. Tommy Hunt and Russell Rembert will compose the boys' squad.

The vicar, awarding prizes at the local dog show, was scandalized at the costumes worn by some members of the younger fair sex.

"Look at that youngster," said he; "the one with cropped hair, the cigarette and breeches, holding two pups. Is it a boy or a girl?"

"A girl," said his companion. "She's my daughter."

"My dear sir!" The vicar was flustered. "Do forgive me. I would never have been so outspoken had I known you were her father."

"I'm not," said the other. "I'm her mother."

Mr. Bridemore—"Did you make that split-pea soup for dinner?"

Mrs. Bridemore—"I've started it, but we can't have it 'til tomorrow. It's taken me all day to split the peas."

* * *

"I was quite upset when Jack kissed me."
"Oh, I say! You'd been kissed before."
"Yes, but never in a canoe."

* * *

"Yes, I know fish is brain food, but I don't care so much for fish. Hain't there some other brain food?"
"Well, there's noodle soup."

* * *

"Mrs. Brown," cried Mr. Smith to his neighbor, "have you spoken to your boy about mimicking me?"
"Yes, I have," replied Mrs. Brown. "I've told him not to act like a fool."

Teacher: "What are the products of the West Indies?"

Boy: "I don't know."

Teacher: "Come, come! Where do you get sugar from?"

Boy: "We borrow it from the next-door neighbor."

"I suppose you will miss your boy while he is at college?"

"Yep," replied Farmer Corntassel. "I dunno what I'll do without him. He got the live stock so they won't move unless he gives 'em the college yell, and I can't remember it."

* * *

"How did you make your neighbor keep his hens in his own yard?"

"One night I hid a half-dozen eggs under a bush in my garden, and next day I let him see me gather them. I wasn't bothered after that."

A newly-married couple were entertaining and among the guests was one whose conduct was rather flippant. At supper he held up on his fork a piece of meat which had been served him, and in a vein of intended humor, remarked, "Is this pig?"

"To which end of the fork do you refer?" asked a quiet-looking man sitting at the other end of the table.

Gruff Father to Son: "Why don't you get out and find a job? When I was your age I was working for $3 a week in a store, and at the end of five years I owned the store."

Son: "You can't do that nowadays. They have cash registers.'

* * *

Gushing young thing: "It was wonderful of you to drop ten thousand feet in a parachute. Do tell me your sensation."

Bored Aviator: "Oh—er—it was just a kind of sinking feeling."
